LITTLE LOCALS.

Look up Mother Bros. new ad. Ross Bros. have a change of ad today.

Sam L. Hain, land commissioner of the Kay See, returned from Roganville this morning.

One of the largest and most handsome roses brought to The Enterprise office was sent by Mrs. Gus Weil. It was almost five inches in diameter.

Captain Cameron, of the Liberty, Houston and Stowell real estate firm of Cameron & Moore, went to Olive this morning with some northern coast country explorers.

Mr. D. R. French, one of Jefferson county's oldest settlers, was in the city this morning and said that the rainfall last night was as heavy as he had ever seen in this country.

Owing to the illness of Bro. Pledger the Rev. W. B. Patterson will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist church morning and evening.

Congressman Cooper is much better today and on a high road to recovery, while Mrs. Cooper is not so well as she has been.

P. J. Ott, traveling auditor of the Wells-Fargo Express company, and George Ray of the Gulf, Beaumont and Kansas City auditor's office, were at Kirbyville and Roganville yesterday, where they checked in some new agents. M. Sweeney was installed at Roganville and Ernest Jackson was sent to Kirbyville to take the place of N. Webb, who was suddenly called to Illinois on business.

DR PRICE HONORED.

Dr. J. S. Price returned last night from Waco, where he attended the Medical Association. The association honored Dr. Price by electing him as their orator, a well deserved compliment.

CARD OF THANKS.

The Dominican Sisters desire to express their thanks, through The Daily Enterprise, for the Easter offering sent to them by their many kind friends.

VALUE OF SEWERS.

The value of sewers is shown in the business district, and on Bowie and Pannin streets, which drained rapidly because of the sewers on those streets. Last night furnished another good argument for sewers.

W. C. T. U. DELEGATES.

At the regular meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union yesterday afternoon the following delegates were elected to attend the state convention at Houston May 8 to 11:

Mrs. J. A. S. Curtis, Mrs. Ella Mow, Mrs. Estelle Daniell, Mrs. L. M. Strubbs and Mrs. Anna Millard. Alternates: Mrs. Effie Miller, Mrs. Angie Rachford, Mrs. Kate Hooper, Mrs. Bob McFarlane and Miss Bruce Ligon.

In writing up the concert of Thursday night, reference to the Constellation orchestra was unintentionally omitted. The selections of the orchestra on that occasion were up to the best standard of that musical organization, and contributed very much to the success of the entertainment.

TICKET OFFICE ROBBED.

The Southern Pacific office at their summer depot was broken into last night and the cash drawer robbed of about $2.00 in small change. On account of a portion of the bank wall being torn out it has been necessary to nail some planks over the opening during the night. It was so tempting that some one could not resist the opportunity of seeing how much they could enrich themselves.
